2. Col. J. C. Loch, C.B.E., continued in command throughout the year.

3. The Mysore State Forces consisted of two Cavalry Units, viz., the Mysore Lancers stationed at Bangalore, and the Mysore Horse stationed at Mysore, three Battalions of Infantry and a Mechanical Transport Corps. During the latter part of the year, the Infantry Regiments were reorganized so as to make them an effective military force for internal security purposes. They were relieved of their non-military duties of guarding District and Taluk Treasuries, by transferring these duties to the Police. The strength of the Regiment was reduced from 1,569 to 778. The reorganized Units consist of three Battalions, viz., 1st or Active Battalion, 2nd or Training Battalion and 3rd or Garrison Duty Battalion. They are now concentrated and trained at Bangalore and Mysore and detachments from the 3rd Battalion are stationed at Kolar and Shimoga. Arrangements have been made to arm them with modern weapons.

4. Two schemes were sanctioned for recruitment of Officers to commissioned ranks, one by the opening of a Cadet class where 14 Officers are trained for direct commission and the other by recruitment of educated young men to the ranks with the prospect of accelerated promotion to commissioned rank.

5. The two Cavalry Units, and the 1st and 2nd Battalions of Infantry Regiments are "A" Class Units.

6. Individual and collective training in Drill and Musketry were carried out satisfactorily. Two battle practices were carried out wherein a Hotchkiss gun and three light automatics were employed. The Officers of the Mysore Lancers had two tactical exercises with the Officers of the Armoured cars and one with the Regular Troops.

7. Certain Officers of Cavalry Regiments took part in Cavalry Brigade Manoeuvres and attended the Madras District War Game. They also attended several courses of instruction both in and outside the State.

8. The discipline of the Army and health and sanitation of the Units were satisfactory.

9. The expenditure under the head "Army" during the year amounted to Rs. 14,93,240 as against Rs. 16,92,298 in the previous year. Of this, a sum of Rs. 21,663 has been spent on Military Works against Rs. 1,13,912 spent in the previous year. Owing to financial stringency, no new works were undertaken.

10. The Military Adviser-in-Chief inspected the Regiment on 12th and 13th November 1931 and was satisfied with the Regimental Parade, Field Firing, Musical Ride, etc.
